AVOCA.

The death of John Allen occurred yesterday morning at the family residence, on the West Side. He had been a sufferer from stomach trouble for several months, but had not been confined to his room until the past few days. Deceased was 73 years of age. He came to this country with a large family in 1889. Shortly after they were left motherless, but by love and sympathy they lightened each others burdens and it was a great comfort to see him pass away so peacefully. He had been employed as mine foreman for the Pennsylvania Coal company, and it is needless to say that he performed his duties with care and wisely. About two years ago he was placed on the retired list. He was a member of the Knights of Honor. The following sons and daughters survive him: Mrs. James Morton, Mrs. Edward Laird, Mrs. William Laird, Miss Janet and Alexander, of this town; James and George, of Dunmore; and Robert, of Cheyenne. There are also two brothers and one sister, Mrs. William McCullough, and James, of Scranton, and Robert, in Scotland. The remains may be viewed from 10 to 1 o'clock tomorrow. The funeral will be held in the Langellie church, in the afternoon, will be made in Langellie cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Edward Bennett will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Services will be held at the house. Interment will be in Marcey cemetery.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Parry was interred yesterday in Langellie cemetery.

The gospel meetings at the Methodist Episcopal church continue with increasing interest. Many who have been different to religion have been revived while a number have professed conversion. Rev. Austin Griffin, D. D., will preach Thursday night. The public is invited to these services.

PITTSBURGH.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 19.—Rumors have been revived, projected new hotel on Broad street, in the vicinity of the new theatre building, although it is highly impossible to get any authentic information on the subject. It is said a company will be capitalized at $50,000 for the erection of the building.

Already indications point to a very exciting political fight here next spring among the Democrats for the control of city affairs. The fight will be centered on the majority and the office of councilman, James Langan, the present president of select council, is said to be a full-fledged candidate for the position now held by Mayor T. J. Corcoran, and will be an anti-Corcoran candidate. The Corcorans have not yet made known their representative will be, but it is understood they will make a strong fight. Mr. Langan has been a life-long resident of the city, with a host of friends, and will make a formidable opponent.

P. H. O'Brien, of Avoca, is a new mine foreman at the Barnum colliery of the Pennsylvania at upper Pittston. He has been fireless at the Sparrowville mine for several years.
